

Community Alternatives Cooperative

Personal information protection policy

Purpose of the policy

To protect the dignity of members and the security of personal information the co-op may gather on individuals, in compliance with the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) and its principles.

Definition

“Personal information” under PIPA means information about an identifiable individual. It includes employee personal information but does not include work contact information or work product information.

Policy

1. The December 2020 Business Meeting will appoint 1 personal information protection officer, Brian Pratt.
2. The board will:
 - provide the PIP officer with a job description outlining duties in relation to PIPA and its principles
 - ensure the PIP officer receives appropriate training
 - ensure the PIP officer fulfills their duties
 - co-operate fully with the PIP officer in the performance of the officer’s duties and in implementation of the policy.
3. The co-op shall only collect the personal information that it requires to ensure sound management of the co-op and to fulfil its obligations to its members, its contractual obligations, and any legal requirements.
4. The co-op shall use and share personal information only with the agreement of the individuals concerned, or as provided for in PIPA.
5. The co-op will store documents that contain personal information securely to prevent unauthorized use. The co-op will destroy personal information when the co-op no longer needs it.
6. Individuals will, on written request, have access to any personal information that the co-op has about them. The co-op will provide the information within 30 days, except where to do so would be in violation of PIPA. The co-op will correct any errors in personal information that the individual brings to its attention.
7. All directors will sign an ethical conduct agreement that includes a confidentiality section. Management staff and any designated members who have access to some personal information or co-op confidential information will also sign the agreement.
8. Discussion that will result in sensitive personal information appearing in the minutes will be held in camera. Minutes of the in camera portion of meetings will be kept separate from the regular minutes, and stored securely, to prevent unauthorized use.

Policy approved: December 15, 2020